George H. Morris

Author of three books; Hunter Seat Equitation, George H. Morris Teaches Beginners to Ride, and Because Every Round Counts, a Medal Final Champion himself, (one of the youngest on record to win both the AHSA Medal Finals and the ASPCA Maclay Finals in the same year) a 1960 Olympian Silver Medalist, Champion in countless International Grand Prixs, coaching multiple students to National and International Grand Prix Wins, and retired USET Chef d'Equipe (Coach). George H. Morris is the most sought after clinician in the world because of his more than 60 years of experience in the sport of show jumping. He has learned his Horsemaster Clinic training from such legendary Horseman as Gordon Wright, Bertalan DeNemethy, Bill Steinkraus and Gunner Anderson. He is all of these admired Horsemen rolled into one.

After retiring as Chef d'Equipe of the United States Show Jumping Team, Morris has set his sights on developing the future of the sport by conducting clinics around the world. Focusing on helping riders develop correct form and function, Morris has often been referred to as the founding father of Hunt Seat Equitation. Second to none, his teachings, technique and style are revered around the world. Over the course of his career, Morris has been highly successful as a rider, coach, clinician, author and judge

Most of George H Morris Clinics are approved by the United States Hunter Jumper Association for their Trainer Certification Program as well. If you are serious and working hard to better your training and build your business you might consider riding or auditing one of GHM Clinics.

Sponsorship

It's a privilege to host The George H. Morris clinic in Michigan. Stoney Ridge Farm is proud to present this High Profile Event. We would like to make this a bi-annual event. Financial support for the success of this event is needed. With that in mind we are offering Sponsorship Packages. Included in the Grand Championship Sponsorship Package will be two auditing tickets per day of clinic., lunch with George H. Morris and the clinic riders. The GHM clinic will have Local and National Media coverage. Chicago Equestrian.com/Brenda Mueller will be sending out multiple press releases discussing the clinic and sponsors involved. Diane Carney of Telluride Stables in Hampshire, ILL has been hosting GHM Clinics for over 30 years. Diane and George H. Morris will be officiating/judging the MHJA Medal Finals prior to the clinic. Diane will also be assisting with the GHM Clinic. Both George H. Morris and Diane Carney are represented by PhelpsSports.com/Phelps Media Group for National coverage. Trainers, Riders and their friends and families from throughout the Midwest will be applying for the rare opportunity to ride and audit this special event.
